By signing this form, I agree that the information provided is correct. Furthermore, I agree that my agents and myself must obey the Charter, Bylaws and Rules & Regulations of Cattlemen's Texas Longhorn Registry.

Membership Application

Article 3 of the Bylaws provides Transferrable Estate, Lifetime, Active and Honorary memberships. In addition to requirements specified therein, entities must complete the following steps in order to obtain their membership and rights, powers and duties provided by the Bylaws.

Transferrable Estate, Lifetime and Active Membership

Persons wishing to obtain one of these categories of membership as set forth in Article 3, Section A, must:

- Submit a completed CTRL membership application form in compliance with Section I, A, of the Rules and Regulations.
- Send this form to the Registry office accompanied with payment as specified in Section III, A, Fee Schedule section of the Rules and Regulations .
- Cattle as specified in Article II, must then be registered with CTRL in the name of the applicant's membership either through initial registration, subsequent registration, or transfer of ownership. Voting rights of Active, Lifetime and Transferrable Estate membership will not be granted to the applicant until this requirement is met. If the applicant cannot meet the requirement, the membership fee will be refundable upon request.
- As stated in the Bylaws Article 3, Section B, each new membership shall be passed unanimously at each and every ensuing Board meeting. The rights of these memberships will not be granted to the applicant until this requirement is met. Should an applicant be denied membership as a direct result of Article 3, Section B, the applicant's membership fee will be refunded.

Honorary Membership

Individuals and Entities may be granted an Honorary member as specified in Article 3, Section A, of the Bylaws.

Non-breeder Support

Persons wishing to support the mission of Cattlemen's Texas Longhorn Registry that do not own cattle qualifying them for a voting membership, are encouraged to make tax-deductible donations to Cattlemen's Texas Longhorn Conservancy.

Membership Booklet

Upon application for membership, Active, Lifetime and Transferrable Estate applicants will receive at no charge one (1) copy of the Membership Booklet that includes Bylaws, Rules and Regulations, forms, procedures information, and Breed Standards illustrations.

Issuance of Certificate

Upon completion of all membership application requirements, one (1) Certificate of Membership will be issued to the member.
